VOLUME 6, NO. 87.

BRAINERD, MINN., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1906.

PRICE TWO CENTS

SAILORS LAND IN CUBA

DETACHMENT FROM UNITED STATES CRUISER DENVER NOW IN HAVANA.

ORDERED BACK ON WARSHIP

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS ORDER SAILORS TO BE RETURNED TO THE CRUISER.

Havana, Sept. 14.—A dispatch received here from Cienfuegos says the United States gunboat Marietta has arrived and debarked a detachment here. Cienfuegos is besieged by insurgents and some of the fortifications already have been damaged.

Havana, Sept. 14.—There are 120 sailors from the United States cruiser Denver camped in front of the old La Fuerza castle facing the Plaza de Armas, the little park in front of the presidential palace, which is the seat of the Cuban government. The American flag is planted just inside of the low stone coping separating the castle grounds from O'Reilly which thoroughfare passes between the camp and the Plaza de Armas. The American sailors are armed with regulation rifles. Two field howitzers and two rapid-fire guns were sent ashore with the sailors and now point across the pretty little park, a significant warning to anyone approaching the executive headquarters of the Cuban government with hostile intent.

The Denver, which originally anchored further up the bay, dropped down to a position abreast of the foot of O'Reilly street and in front of the offices of the captain of the port, so as to be conventionally near the detachment sent ashore and close at hand in case of need.

The whole business was done so quietly and quickly that it caused the greatest surprise. The reason for the sudden landing of the American sailors was a conference between President Palma, Charge d' Affaires Sleeper and Commander Colwell Thursday afternoon. On the occasion of the latter's formal call upon President Palma Mr. Sleeper asked the president the direct question whether he considered that the government was able to protect all American interests in Havana unaided. The president replied that he hoped that the government would be able to do so, but himself suggested

That It Might Be Advisable as a measure of precaution in the interests of Americans as well as for the maintenance of order in general to land marines at some convenient point, suggesting the Plaza de Armas as the place.

Mr. Sleeper and Commander Colwell after a brief conference decided that the landing should be made Thursday evening and at 5:30 o'clock the detachment under command of Executive Officer Miller began coming ashore with arms, ammunition and camp paraphernalia and took up a position commanding the approach to the palace. Two hours later the commissary outfit followed with supper for the officers and men.

Questioned whether their duties on shore would simply be protection of American interests or defense of the palace and President Palma, Executive Officer Miller and the other officers of the detachment unanimously replied that if the town should be attacked or if an uprising occurred in the city they undoubtedly would have something to do regardless of fine questions as to who attacked.

Commander Colwell suggested that if quiet continued the sailors from the Denver might return on board ship. President Palma, however, urgently requested that they remain where they are. The president expressed satisfaction with the influence the presence of the bluejackets was producing and said he considered it a guarantee against an attack on or an uprising in Havana.

The sight of American sailors encamped near the palace roused great curiosity among the people of Havana, most of whom accepted it as an evidence of intervention.

All the main insurgent forces in Havana province are reported to be concentrated at Bejucal. The town officials and police have joined them.

The insurgents have occupied Santiago de las Vegas and seized the city hall and the government agricultural experimental station.

ORDERED TO RETURN.

Sailors Will Be Sent Back on Board the Denver.

Washington, Sept. 14.—It was officially announced here late Thursday night that the sailors who were landed at Havana from the American cruiser Denver have been ordered to immediately return to their vessel, save for a small guard which will be left at the American legation. This action followed the receipt of an official report by Acting Secretary of State Bacon from Mr. Sleeper, the American charge d' affaires at Havana, regarding the landing of the men. The report was not made public, but it was announced officially shortly afterward that the sailors were landed from the Denver solely and simply for the protection of the lives and property of American citizens; that such action was in pursuance of a discussion between Mr. Sleeper, the charge, and the naval commander with the belief that it was a wise precaution looking to the protection of the lives and property of Americans. There was no intention, it is stated, to do otherwise than to safeguard American interests and the services of the sailors were to be utilized only in case of disorders within the city which threatened such interests.

That the landing in any way contemplated the protection of either the Cuban government or the insurrectionary government, or President Palma or any other persons than American citizens was disclaimed officially and it was pointed out that this fact could not be emphasized too strongly.

Mr. Sleeper's cablegram reported the landing of the sailors and explained that the purpose was not for the protection of anybody or anything except American lives and property.

The announcement that the sailors had been ordered back to ship, except for the small legation detachment, followed from the White House very soon after the receipt of Mr. Sleeper's official report. That the landing was a complete surprise to the government here and that it was not made under instructions from Washington was made plain, but the reasons that actuated Commander Colwell were set forth in his dispatch.

COLWELL ASTONISHED.

Has Received No Order to Take Sailors Back to Cruiser.

Havana, Sept. 14.—Commander Colwell late Thursday night was shown a press dispatch from Washington stating that the sailors from the cruiser Denver had been ordered to return. He expressed great astonishment and said he had received no such order, and added he believed that the department had not deciphered his code message explaining the situation. Commander Colwell said he believed that Thursday evening's events had so proved. However, if, after reaching an understanding of the situation, the navy department ordered the return of the sailors on board ship the order would be carried out within half an hour.

OFFER TO SURRENDER

CUBAN REBELS WANT UNITED STATES TO GUARANTEE THEM A FAIR TRIAL.

Havana, Sept. 14.—An extraordinary incident in connection with the presence of an American force in Havana happened late Thursday evening when Commander Colwell was approached by an accredited emissary of Alfredo Zayas, president of the Liberal party, and General Loynaz del Castillo, commander of the insurgent forces in Havana province, with a signed offer from each of the men named to surrender their commands and hand over their arms to Commander Colwell on the sole condition that the United States government through him guarantee them fair and judicial trials. Commander Colwell, accompanied by Charge d' Affaires Sleeper, immediately carried the proposition to President Palma. The president was immensely pleased and asked Commander Colwell if he would accept the surrenders. Commander Colwell replied in the negative, but advised the president to communicate with the Washington government on the subject, which was done.

ON THE CUBAN SITUATION.

President Roosevelt to Confer With Bonaparte and Bacon.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 14.—The Cuban situation is to be made the subject of a conference here today between President Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of State Bacon and Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte. The latter two officials will be guests of the president at luncheon on the Mayflower. It is expected that the conference relative to Cuba will take place at Sagamore Hill. Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana, who is a member of the senate committee on Cuban relations, is also to be on the Mayflower.

It is stated that there have been no fresh developments here in the Cuban situation but that the presence here of the acting head of the state department and the head of the navy department for the exercises on the Mayflower would be taken advantage of by the president to go over the situation in the island republic.

The administration seemingly considers that in dispatching warships to Cuba it has taken no steps whatever to restore or to preserve the peace of the island under the terms of the Platt amendment.

DEMOCRATS OF COLORADO.

Nominate a State Ticket Headed by Alva Adams for Governor.

Denver, Sept. 14.—After three days of strenuous sessions the Democratic state convention Thursday night adjourned sine die. A ticket was named as follows:

Governor, Alva Adams, Pueblo county; lieutenant governor, Elias M. Emmons, Douglas; secretary of state, Horace W. Havens, Lake; state treasurer, Edward E. Drach, Garfield; attorney general, William B. Morgan, Las Animas; state adjutant, Andrew Sandberg, Clear Creek; superintendent of public instruction, Miss Honore Maloney, Denver; regents of state university, Benjamin Cobey, Pitkin; Harry Bryant, Denver; congressman-at-large, Samuel Belford, Denver; nominated for congress, Second Colorado district, Warren A. Haggott, Republican.

The action of the convention, which is considered by all concerned as the most momentous, was the reading out of the party of the Speer faction of Denver county because of their alleged subversion to local utility corporations. The debate on this matter lasted nearly a whole day and the matter was before the credentials committee of the convention for nearly an entire night.

The renomination of Alva Adams was demanded in the platform and was practically unopposed because of the general opinion among Democrats that he should be vindicated in his claim that he was robbed of the governorship two years ago in the Peabody-Adams contest before the state legislature. The platform of the convention endorsed Bryan and took a decisive stand against corporation domination of political parties and pledges the Democracy of the state to the enactment of a law making it a felony for officials of corporations to contribute to campaign funds.

BRYAN REPLIES TO SULLIVAN.

Refuses to Allow Discussion to Be a Personal Controversy.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 14.—The reply of William J. Bryan to the statement of Roger Sullivan of Chicago was given out Thursday night. Mr. Bryan had said that he would not lower the discussion with Mr. Sullivan to one of personal controversy. The text of his reply follows:

"In his speech before the Jefferson club of Chicago on the evening of Sept. 4, Mr. Bryan referred to the case of Mr. Roger Sullivan, Democratic national committeeman from Illinois. Mr. Sullivan has replied in a statement quite characteristic of the man and his methods, but he will not be permitted to lower this discussion to the level of a personal controversy. Mr. Sullivan is the Democratic national committeeman from Illinois holding his office by virtue of unfair methods. This matter was presented to the St. Louis convention and even would have convinced the convention had not the delegates feared the effect of adverse decision on the presidential candidate whom they were pledged to support. If Mr. Sullivan disputes the assertion that a considerable majority of the delegates to the Springfield convention were opposed to him he can fight the question out with the majority league of Illinois, which will doubtless accommodate him.

"As Mr. Bryan has not asked for a nomination and has not announced that he will be a candidate, he will not submit the question whether he should be a candidate to Mr. Sullivan or to any body of persons less numerous than the members of the Democratic party of the United States."

BRYAN AT CINCINNATI.

Delivers an Address in the Ball Park in That City.

Cincinnati, Sept. 14.—Introduced by Mayor Dempsey and speaking from a stand erected over the diamond of the Cincinnati ball park, William J. Bryan Thursday addressed an immense audience seated in the grand stand and in additional chairs placed in front of the stands. Mr. Bryan in his address claimed no credit if principles which he advocated had grown more popular, for he never had thought he stood alone in the advocacy of Democratic principles. "The Democratic idea," he said, "is larger than this republic. There is no nation which I have visited in which there are not the seeds of democracy and in them all democracy is growing. The man who puts country above self is the reformer."

Millard Sanders Injured.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.—Millard Sanders, well known trainer and driver of Lou Dillon and other horses, was thrown from a sulky at the state fair grounds Thursday and seriously hurt.

BIG PLANT DAMAGED

PROPERTY VALUED AT FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS DESTROYED.

SEVERAL FIREMEN INJURED

FIRE IN A PACKING PLANT AT CUDAHY, WIS., FINALLY GOT TEN UNDER CONTROL.

Milwaukee, Sept. 14.—The big packing plant of the Cudahy Bros. Packing company at Cudahy, Wis., six miles south of Milwaukee, was badly damaged by fire Thursday night and Friday morning. At 10:30 o'clock Thursday night the fire was said to be under control but was still burning several hours later.

Patrick Cudahy estimates that the loss will reach about $400,000, fully covered by insurance.

Several firemen are said to have been severely injured while fighting the fire.

The big building in which the lard refinery, beef house, glue works and killing department are located is a total loss. The fire got into the main building, but the flames were checked there and the structure was saved.

The fire started in the lard department. The cause is still unknown. The flames spread with great rapidity and were not discovered for some time, as the workmen had gone to their homes.

When the fire was finally reported to the fire department, the whistle in the plant was sounded and the entire town turned out to assist in fighting the blaze. Long before the firemen could get water on the flames, the fire had spread over the entire building, which is about 900 by 300 feet in dimensions and six stories high. The Milwaukee fire department sent several pieces of apparatus and probably prevented a much greater loss.

The fire throws 500 men out of work but the building will be rebuilt immediately.

The report that one man had been killed proved to be erroneous.

NAVY DEPARTMENT BUSY.

Preparing to Send More Vessels to Cuban Waters.

Washington, Sept. 14.—In conformity with plans put into execution several days ago, the navy department is quietly preparing several other vessels to join those already ordered to Cuba. But it is distinctly stated that there is no purpose of intervention in all this; that President Palma has been so informed and the ships are going to Cuba precisely as they would go to one of the South or Central American republics in case of war or revolution, where considerable American interests were threatened. There will be no interference with the politics of the island; no landing parties except in the extreme event of unrestrained rioting, when international law demands restraining action by any neutral ship present in port and in fact the American sailors will stand aloof and let the strongest side win in Cuba, providing American lives and property are saved.

It is realized, however, that by some unexpected act on either the part of the government or the rebel forces the United States may be obliged to abandon this attitude of neutrality and carry out the provisions of the Platt amendment. It is confidently believed by the authorities here that this will not be necessary, but common prudence has obliged the military and naval general staff and board to provide against any eventuality. So while the navy is preparing its ships, the army is being carefully studied by the responsible ranking officers with the view to quick, sharp and effective action in case its services are needed.

So far as can be learned there have been no troop movements in this connection and although Thursday's army orders provided for the return to the United States from the Philippines of the Twenty-first infantry, sailing from Manila Sept. 20, and the Sixth infantry, sailing Oct. 10, it is stated that these are ordinary routine of movements projected long ago.

The only portions made public of dispatches received at the state department Thursday from Mr. Sleeper, charge at Havana, say that there has been fighting reported in Pinar del Rio and in the vicinity of Cienfuegos. They tell of the blowing up of bridges, but indicate that the railway to Pinar del Rio may be re-opened soon. Mr. Sleeper says that the government is doing everything in its power to suppress the insurrection.

We Open the Bargain Basement

Saturday Morning.

This will be an entirely new departure for Brainerd, but one we believe will be much appreciated. We gather in the basement all such articles as are sold below their value and a number of special bargains which our cash buying plan permits us to secure.

The assortment is a varied one as there are some articles there from almost every section of the store. You should have received an announcement of the nature of these offerings at your door today.

Let us suggest that you make a trip to the basement frequently and keep in touch with what we are showing. It is a Bargain Basement and you'll find genuinely good bargains every business day.

Our new stairway to the basement is situated where our notion counter was formerly. There is also an outside entrance, but you will find the inside stairway much the more convenient.

Salt and Epilepsy.

"Whenever we get a call to attend a case of epilepsy," said an ambulance surgeon at Bellevue, "we always find the patient's neck and face covered with salt. The efficiency of salt as a cure for epilepsy is evidently a relic of some old country superstition, though just what it is we've never been able to find out."—New York Sun.

THINGS are quiet on the Thornapple these days.

HEARST is now a candidate for governor of New York with the independent league behind him.

THE Wadena Pioneer-Journal says Buckman will carry that county next Tuesday by a good majority.

WHEN you vote next Tuesday don't forget that C. B. Buckman is a friend of Brainerd and has proven the statement.

BRYAN tells his party he has not changed, but still clings to the government ownership idea, though it hurts the democrats nigh unto death.

A DULUTH boy of twelve summers had a fierce battle with a mad dog yesterday and after a five minutes bout succeeded in killing the brute. Great town that, Duluth.

THIS trouble will be all over next Tuesday night and after that republicans will be jogging along shoulder to shoulder in support of the nominees as against the "bad" democrats.

MINNESOTA will have a distinguished speaker in the person of Senator Beveridge who will address the people of the state at Minneapolis the last week in September. It will be a political treat.

THE only vote that Mr. Buckman is criticized on is the one favoring buying goods in the home market, and as most of the republicans voted that way he was not in bad company and supported a pretty good principle, that of patronizing home industries.

SEVENTY-FIVE or a hundred thousand dollars will build a pretty nice building for a town like Brainerd, and will be an ornament to the city as well. Just as sure as Buckman is elected to congress we will get it. He has already recured $10,000 to purchase the site with, we need him in congress to complete the good work. When you vote next Tuesday bear this in mind and vote for Brainerd's welfare.

THE anti-Nelson republicans who started to re-organize Minnesota politics last spring have not won much so far. They could not defeat Cole. They are centering their fight now on Buckman, and calling in outside help to defeat him. They will be beaten again, and then have little chance to injure Nelson later in the campaign. It was a big scheme, but the people were not with it, says the Transcript.

THIS idea of importing outside agitators to tell you how to run your home affairs doesn't set well, even Frank Eddy's dates in the second district where he was going to knock McClary, have been cancelled. Jacobson was imported into the Sixth district on a similar mission, his efforts being directed against Buckman and to vent his wrath on a lot of fellows who supported their home candidate—A. L. Cole, for governor. "Jake" was defeated for the nomination and some one must sweat for it. In the meantime anything Jacobson may say about Buckman will only help his majority—the people are next to his disappointment.

BASEBALL WITH CARDS.

Kansas City Firemen Play New Game While Waiting For Alarms.

Baseball played with cards. This is the new game that Kansas City firemen are using to pass the time at headquarters while waiting for something to do, says the Kansas City Star.

A traveling salesman from St. Louis introduced the game a few days ago, and for the time being dominos, crokinole and tiddle-de-winks have been neglected. Four people can play the game. Singles, two baggers, home runs and errors can be made just as in the national game of baseball. A two hour contest the other afternoon resulted in a score of 3 to 2. But the games do not always run so nearly even. A game a few days ago resulted in a score of 15 to 0.

"It all depends on the pitcher and catcher and how the man who is playing the cards keeps his head," one of the players said.

Letter From Leading Author

Fred Wade Wolf, whose new and intensely interesting book, "Battles of Life," is attracting such wide attention from press and pulpit, has recently recovered from a severe attack of muscular rheumatism and tells a remarkable story of his experience.

"It was while traveling," said Mr. Wolf, "that I was stricken with a very severe case of muscular rheumatism which so disabled me that I found it difficult to hobble about the hotel where I was stopping.

"The strain of constant travel had proved too much for me and my nervous system became badly deranged. My hands began to stiffen and every joint in my body was sore.

"Doctors could not relieve me and I was about to despair and go to a hospital when a friend advised me to try Cooper's New Discovery and Quick Relief. I did so and from the very first I began to improve. Every unfavorable symptom had disappeared in a very short time. I am now well and actively engaged in my profession and these wonderful remedies did it. They have been worth a thousand dollars to me for I certainly would not take that sum for the benefit I received."

Cooper's New Discovery is the medicine that has been causing such a tumult during the past year wherever introduced by L. T. Cooper, the young philanthropist. Cooper's Quick Relief is the remarkable liniment sold by Mr. Cooper in connection with the New Discovery.

The Cooper preparations are sold in this city by H. P. Dunn & Co., who secured the agency for them some time ago. They are more talked of today than any proprietary remedies ever introduced in the United States.

SIX ENGINES IN A SINGLE TRAIN

Extra Freight Comes in Today from South with Six Engines in the Train.

FIVE OF THEM WERE DEAD

Four were New and Fifth was No. 228—The Hoodo—With Her Side Rods Smashed.

An extra from the south this forenoon brought in no less than five dead engines. Four of them were new engines of the "Twenty-Three Hundred" type, being numbered 2333, 2334, 2335 and 2336, and were brought here dead to be set up at the shops. This makes an even dozen of the engines of this type that have been in the shops here this season to be set up.

The other dead engine was 228—the hoodo—who has at least two dead engines to her account and now comes in with all her side rods broken and twisted and one cylinder head smashed in. She was pulling No. 6 between Little Falls and St. Paul yesterday when she broke the main pin on her right hand drivers. The rods were bent and twisted badly, her cab smashed and running board torn off. The fireman, Geo. Conley, jumped when the train was in rapid motion and struck on a pile of ties and was badly hurt. He had three ribs broken and was otherwise injured, and was taken to St. Paul. It is reported here that his recovery is doubtful. Engineer Hooker staid by the engine and escaped injury.

The stub of the broken pin shows that less than one-fourth of the pin held at the time of the accident, a flaw or old crack, probably the result of one of her former wrecks, covering almost the entire cross section of the pin. The 228 is known on the Minnesota division as a hoodo, having caused the death of Engineers Schultz and Scott, and has been in collisions and wrecks innumerable.

As one railroad man put it, they ought to lay a track to the river bank and run her out to the end and let her jump off.

An Insidious Danger

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. H. P. Dunn & Co. eoddw

AMUSEMENTS

Parsifal

No grander spectacle, no more sublime subject, no greater Christian lesson or more intense dramatic action, and no more beautiful or interesting story was ever embodied in a play in the world's history than is witnessed in the magnificent world known mystic drama, "Parsifal."

Since Wagner's celebrated drama of "Parsifal" has been announced for its presentation here tomorrow night quite a considerable degree of interest and expectation is evidenced among all classes of our theatre goers. There is no doubt but much of this is caused from mere curiosity, occasioned by having heard of the tremendous excitement that was stirred up at its initial production in New York City. But by far the greater and keener interest is shown by the intelligent reading class of the masses and the more refined and cultivated citizens comprising the better grade of lovers of all that is good in theatrical offerings. The play of "Parsifal" essentially appeals to the intellect, and one whose best enjoyment is gained through that medium cannot find a more worthy vehicle than "Parsifal," as presented by Messrs. Martin and Emery's capable company. The spectacle, however, cannot fail to please all classes. There is something in its production that will appeal to every individual taste. "Parsifal" patrons should bear in mind that the first lift of the curtain will occur promptly at 7:45. Owing to the auditorium being in darkness none can be seated after this time, till conclusion of the first act. Ten minutes warning of the approach of commencement time will be given by uniformed Heralds blowing a "Parsifal" motif on their clarions.

There has been a brisk demand for seats and indications point to a bumper house for tomorrow night's performance of this great play. Secure a good location while there is yet time.

To Whom it May Concern

Notice is hereby given that public districts Nos. 6 and 7 have been accepted by the engineers, and any person having a complaint to make on the construction of either of said districts can present their case at a meeting of the county board Oct. 2, 1906.

You Ought to Know the truth about Heating Stoves before you invest in one. You have probably heard of the genuine Round Oak made in Dowagiac, Michigan. It has made its mark as the best heating stove known; it has a record for success never equaled by any stove of any kind. It must have been good and it certainly satisfied its million users or it would not be the most popular and have the largest sale of any heating stove in this country. We wish you to know these facts and also that it has been kept up to the high standard set by it in the start and that its cost is no more than an imitation. We take pleasure in explaining why it surpasses all others. And the fuel does not matter—any kind most convenient for you to secure. We invite you to see it. Bulletin No. 1 of the State Highway Commission of Minnesota has been received at this office. It treats of the construction and maintenance of earth roads and should be in the hands of every road supervisor in the state. It is practical and concise and at the same time goes into detail enough so that any supervisor ought to be able to construct a road that will last if it has proper care. The Bulletin is along the same lines as the addresses given here recently by State Engineer Cooley, and there are several illustrations showing the methods of construction and implements of maintenance.

The Bulletin also sets forth the law as to drainage of roads and the proper methods of procedure in the matter. Local drains can be ordered by the town, due notice to be given as provided by sections 1214 to 1220 of the Revised Code. The engineer says, after quoting from the law. "The above is one of the most important provisions of the law governing the administration of our highway system, and one which unfortunately is very seldom acted upon or even considered. Every road overseer should, in the construction of a new road, see to it that the drainage plans are carefully made by some competent person and as carefully carried out before the road is opened for travel."

"If it is argued, as it frequently is, that the town has not sufficient money to provide for the necessary ditches, or that the road should be got ready for travel without loss of time, the answer may be made that the town cannot afford NOT to do such work."

"Millions of dollars have been expended in the western states for repairs caused by insufficient or entire lack of drainage, and it is no wonder that farmers complain of the small profits received from the expenditure of road tax, while the conditions of so many roads show plainly by its mud holes and washed out culverts that most repairs have been made necessary by an injudicious or careless use of the money spent on construction."

—o—

The Bulletin contains detailed instructions as to "Road Work in Cuts and Fills," "Sub-drainage," "Corduroy" and other marsh road, and also detailed advice and description and illustration of devices for maintenance. It closes with "A Few Rules for the Guidance of Road Overseers." These will be published in full in this department next week. The Bulletin also contains a set of specifications the same as used by Hennepin county in all its contract work on the highways. They form an excellent basis for a contract between the town or county and the contractor, and their use will avoid misunderstandings as well as insure proper work.

The matter of compelling a contractor to furnish a bond is also important. If a man takes a job of the town too low let him lose by it. If he has a good thing let him get his entire pay without quibble, but as he can hold the town responsible for its end of the contract they should bond him so as to hold him responsible.

ARE YOU WRETCHED IN BAD WEATHER?

Keeping the Kidneys Well Has Kept Many Brainerd People Well

Many Brainerd people find that bad weather brings on a dull pain in the back, or rheumatic aching, neuralgia, nervousness, irritability and weakness. If, when you get wet or take cold, it "settles on the kidneys," and there is a shivery, chilly sensation in the back, it shows kidney weakness, which is often the beginning of disease. Doan's Kidney Pills should be used persistently until the chilly feeling is gone, and the flow of urine is natural. Doan's Kidney Pills have saved Brainerd people much suffering.

Mrs. J. A. Johnson, living at 611 10th St. S., Brainerd, Minn., says: "My husband's work brings a constant severe strain on the muscles of the back and it recently caused an attack of kidney trouble that became worse whenever he took cold. He suffered from backache and was so lame and sore that it was hard to straighten up or even to move about. There was also an irregular action of the kidneys. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised he got a box at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store, and the treatment proved most beneficial, corrected the kidney trouble and removed the pain and lameness. I also used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, with the gratifying results. They certainly act quickly and surely."

SIMPLE CATARRH REMEDY

Take a Hyomei Treatment Four Times a Day and be Cured.

Hyomei has performed almost miraculous cures and is today recognized by leading members of the medical profession as the only advertised remedy for this disease that can be relied upon to do just what it claims.

Until recently your physician would have said the only way to cure catarrh would be to have a change of climate, but now with Hyomei you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day, cure yourself.

The Hyomei treatment is simple and easy to use. It destroys all catarrh germs in the air passages and enriches and purifies the blood with ozone. When using Hyomei the air you breathe will seem like that on the mountains, high above the sea level.

A complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles 50c. If it does not give you satisfaction H. P. Dunn & Co. will refund your money. You run no risk whatever in taking this reliable treatment.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS OF RUSSIA LIKELY TO MEET IN STOCKHOLM.

MINISTRY WILL TRY TO KEEP
RADICAL CANDIDATES OUT OF PARLIAMENT.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 14.—Next week perhaps will witness the spectacle of an organized political party going abroad to hold a congress and plan an electoral campaign. The report of the Constitutional Democratic emissary who was sent to Helsinki to sound the Finnish authorities on their attitude with regard to the holding of a congress of the party there Sept. 21, was of such a nature that the Constitutional Democratic executive committee is altering its plans, and an agent has been to Stockholm. The committee is arranging to have a special steamer in readiness to convey the delegates.

Professor Mourmoutseff, who presided over the late lower house of parliament, will not attend the congress. He went to Germany Thursday ostensibly to visit his son; but it is no secret that he is out of sympathy with the Viborg address and unwilling to further compromise his political future by participation in an outlaw congress. The Constitutional Democratic leaders prefer also that his availability for the presidency of the coming parliament shall not be impaired.

The ministry makes no concealment of its intention to resort to all legitimate means to keep the more radical of the Constitutional Democrats out of parliament.

A member of the cabinet, reiterating Premier Stolypin's view that the Constitutional Democrats are undesirable as a party in parliament because their "respectability" was a cloak for highly dangerous sedition and clericalism, gave additional justification of the premier's prohibition of the congress because of the effect of such a congress upon the universities which are on the point of opening. This cabinet minister said that it was inevitable that if the congress were permitted and should violate the limitations necessarily imposed upon it, entailing its dispersal, it would precipitate a students' strike and possibly a repetition of the general strike of last October.

Troops Kill Peasants.

Samara, Sept. 14.—Peasants who were holding a meeting at the village of Noretzki, stoned the police who attempted to disperse the assailants. Troops were summoned; they fired a volley into the mob, killing or wounding several of them.

Soldiers Poisoned.

Warsaw, Sept. 14.—At Kielce, 150 privates of the Fifth Infantry regiment became suddenly ill Thursday as the result of it is believed of having eaten poisoned meat. One of the soldiers died.

FARMER'S WIFE MURDERED.

Body Found by Husband on His Return Home.

Media, Pa., Sept. 14.—Mrs. E. K. Pavitt, wife of a farmer, was beaten to death at her home in Springfield township near here with a hatchet in the hands of an unknown assailant during the absence of her husband. Her body, with the head crushed almost into a pulp, was found lying on the kitchen floor by her husband upon his return from Chester, where he had gone to dispose of a load of farm products.

In a short time a posse of farmers was organized and a few hours later William Kelson, colored, aged nineteen years, was taken into custody on suspicion. He denies all knowledge of the crime.

A negro answering Kelson's description was seen loitering near the Pavitt farm during the morning.

The negro proved an alibi and was released.

Famous Alaskan Spendthrift Files Petition in Bankruptcy.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 14.—"Swiftwater Bill" Gates, the Alaska miner who gained national fame as a spendthrift, filed a petition to be declared a bankrupt in the federal court Thursday. Gates sets up his assets as $200 in cash, wearing apparel worth $100 and a watch and chain. Court judgments amounting to nearly $200,000 were given as his liabilities. Gates swore he had no real estate of any character.

STATE POLITICS.

St. Paul, Sept. 12.—Since my last letter the Democratic convention has passed into the pages of history. It is not a specially illuminating one. It is, however, a valuable one to the fact that it affords another illustration of how little the Democratic party, even when circumscribed by no responsibility, can invent or is willing to promise. The Democrats appreciate as well as the rest of us that their candidates can never be in a position to fulfill their pledges and that for their non-performance they can always blame their political opponents. Under such circumstances the only wonder is that they did not point the way to an altogether better political and social millennium, the failure to do so because both lack imagination and the Democratic constitutional incapacity for taking the initiative.

It is, therefore, scarcely surprising that with all the will in the world the platform makers were unable to think of anything really new which would catch the public eye. Possibly they imagined that the declaration demanding of the legislature that such laws be passed at the next session of the legislature as will facilitate municipal ownership of public service utilities was of that nature. Such ownership is a thing which the Democrats have been really the only thing I know of in its disfavor, but although Republican legislators did not give it so generous a name they provided for such ownership so far back that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. Most municipalities in Minnesota owe to the waterworks and light and power companies the money which for years operated them successfully and profitably without having to appeal to the legislature for more laws. Some have their electric plants and if other cities want to put their money into the business there is no reason in the world why they should not do so with perfect ease. Nor is there any but a financial difficulty to prevent the ownership of telephone lines or anything else a municipality may think it advisable to have. The only thing I can think of the state could do to advance this reform, which many no doubt think desirable, would be to furnish the money to build the plants and I am only surprised that some progressive Democrat was not on hand to suggest such action to the legislature. I doubt if there is a city in the state which under such circumstances would not ardently desire the boon of "municipal ownership of public utilities."

Possibly the Democratic platform makers did not know what everyone else does that to make an economic change like the adoption of an eight-hour day is not under our system a political function and that the power of the state in such matters is quite limited. While personally I believe eight hours is long enough for any man to work, especially at any mechanical occupation which confines him within doors, that is a matter which must be threshed out between employers and employed. So that the demanding it in a political platform is claptrap, pure and simple, designed to catch the labor vote. Of a like character is the demand for a mechanical education. Whatever may have been done elsewhere our counts have wisely refrained so far as possible from interfering in labor troubles and quite recently have denied injunctions asked for against striking printers. Possibly it might be desirable to limit the discretion of judges in such matters, but we are not quite ready to give to Mr. Dick O'Connor, whose intimate relations with the Great Northern road are well known, and who is understood to have supervised the making of the platform, credit for any very extraordinary sympathy with wage workers. Another device to catch the labor vote was the declaration for the initiative and referendum. I have, however, seen no sign that either mechanics or farmers are wildly excited in their demand for this reform. When they really show that they want it the Republican party will doubtless be ready to give it to them.

As other planks in the platform are either devoted to the praise of Governor Johnson and his employees or are plagiarized from the Republican declaration of principles it will not be necessary to refer to them. All at least except one, which endorses Mr. Bryan, whose ten years' record of political expediency is approved with all that it implies, as a "contest for the common rights of all the people against the vested wrongs and special interests of a few," whatever that may mean. But I am not sorry for the linking together of the names of Bryan and Johnson, which is more suggestive than might at first appear, for I have excellent authority for saying that Governor Johnson's ambition lies in the direction of a more protracted union, and that while he might have been a candidate for governor if he had no such bee buzzing in his bonnet, he would certainly not have betrayed so keen a desire for re-election. In the event of Governor Johnson's election and the success of the movement for his further advancement it is confidently anticipated that he can land the state's electoral vote for the pestiferous, non-representative, and profligate political policies.

Two things made the convention noteworthy: one occurred early in its proceedings; the other was at its close. The first was the speech delivered by the chairman, Mr. Winston, who those who know things down deep say has never forgotten either Governor Johnson for the way he treated him after his election or the Republicans who, voting for Johnson, voted against him. And the circumstances were such at the convention that he could take his revenge on both at the same time. And he did it with the timely utterance of a single phrase which bids fair to be as long remembered in this state as of utterance of "Eten, Romanism and rebellion," was on another memorable occasion. To a joyous chorus of Democratic approval Mr. Winston characterized the Independent Republicans who voted for Johnson, "the very unscrupulous and reckless body of our citizens generally known as mugwumps or conservatives."

That the governor agrees with Mr. Winston in regarding as "reckless and unscrupulous" the Republicans who supported him there can be little doubt, though he is altogether too polite and considerate to call them "mugwumps." At least to their faces. Rather he pats them on the back and tells them how independent and virtuous they are, and how little of a partisan, and how much of a patriot he is. That will be the burden of his speeches during this campaign. But the cakes and cheese and pie are mostly distributed among the faithful, and you can always judge the man better by what he does than by what he says.

The other incident to which I refer was the blanket instruction given the committee on resolutions to add additional planks to the platform. As submitted the platform had no drainage plank in it; it had no tax amendment plank in it, and more curious still, it had no 2-cent passenger fare plank in it. What do you think of that for blatant railroad reformers? Dick's hand there again, you say? Like enough. What he says goes.

The issue of state development is ridiculed by the Democratic managers, but they had warning from the delegate, who declared that it was an unfair handicap to the governor to leave out mention of state development and drainage, questions of such vital importance to the people, and so much emphasized by the Republican candidate. The governor and his advisers evidently do not share this opinion.

ADAMS SPIRITED AWAY.

Taken From the Idaho Penitentiary to Wallace.

Boise, Ida., Sept. 14.—Steve Adams was spirited away from the state penitentiary at night and taken to Wallace, where a charge of murder has been made against him. Attorneys Clarence Darrow and John F. Nugent, representing the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, who are involved in the Steunenberg case, apparently were outwitted by this move. They have left for Wallace, declaring their intention to institute habeas corpus proceedings in an effort to secure the release of Adams.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in the last stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. RESOLVED TO SIN NO MORE.

Wall Street Brokers Converted by Minnesota Evangelist.

New York, Sept. 14.—With the remarkable achievement of having converted Wall street to his credit Rev. William Wilkinson, street preacher, will end his labors in the financial district during the day and seek other fields for his evangelistic labors. While few have suspected the reformation which was going on among the men who promote trusts, water stocks and strip the fleece from the guileless lamb it is said confidently that the work has been thorough and that Wall street has resolved to go and sin no more.

For five days a week Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, who often calls himself plain "Wilkinson," has stood at the noon hour in front of the customhouse and those of every station in life have stopped in the midst of the temples of Mammon to listen to him. Bankers, brokers and merchants have sought him out after his services and have invited the evangelist of the street to their homes. They have taken him to luncheon, offered him the use of their offices and have done everything possible to help him.

Rev. Mr. Wilkinson is general missionary of the Protestant Episcopal church in Minnesota and his home is in Minneapolis.
